TAFT UPHOLDS THE PRESIDENT

Considers Wilson Statement
an "Eminently Proper" One and Italy in the Wrong.

ARDMORE, Okla., April 24.—"Eminently proper," exclaimed former President William Howard Taft in an interview today on President Wilson's statement in Paris yesterday regarding Italian demands at the peace conference. Italy, the former president said, could not consistently obstruct the working out of the treaty of peace, inasmuch as that country is dependent upon America financially and for food stuffs and coal.

SOCIALISTS COMMEND WILSON.
PARIS, April 24.—Popular, the newspaper of M. Longuet, leader of the minority socialists—the advanced socialists—welcomes President Wilson's declaration unreservedly. It regrets that it was not issued sooner.
The Journal des Debats in an editorial signed by its foreign editor, M. Gauvain, supports President Wilson's action entirely, and says:
"The president has applied the surgeon's knife to a painful wound; the patient will cry out, but the wound will heal and the surgeon will be thanked in the end."

LEAGUE PRAISES WILSON.
NEW YORK, April 24.—The League of Free Nations association today called President Wilson praising him for his statement issued yesterday in Paris concerning the diplomatic crisis created by the Italian demands in the Adriatic.

BRITISH LABOR CONGRATULATES
LONDON, April 24.—Prominent British labor leaders have sent a telegram to President Wilson congratulating him "on your magnificent declaration for peace based on the fourteen points," and adding:
"We are certain that the Italian workers will associate themselves with the international workers in supporting you."

Among those signing the telegram are Arthur Henderson, former member of the War cabinet; Charles W. Bowerman, secretary of the trades union congress; John Hodge, former minister of pensions; George Lansbury, former socialist member of the house of commons; Robert Smillie, the miners' leader; James Henry Thomas, general secretary of the national union of railway men, and Sidney Webb, economist.

A message also was sent to Premier Lloyd George, commending him for the support he was giving to President Wilson and another telegram was sent to Deputy Turati, leader of the Inter-transigent socialists, at Rome, appealing to the Italian workers to support the president of the United States.

PIERCE'S PORK AND BEANS
PIERCE'S Pork and Beans happily solve the hurried meal problem. Either hot or cold—they're always appetizing and can be made ready in an instant. The children are happy, satisfied and nourishingly fed, while Mother is left free for other tasks. It's certainly true that "you don't know beans 'till you've tasted Pierce's"—plump, tender and cooked just right.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR GREAT WAR

American Method of Punishment Differs From That of the Majority.

PARIS, Thursday, April 24.—It has become known that the American delegates have been able to agree to certain portions of the report adopted by the majority of the commission on responsibility for the war and, as presented by the council of four, the report contains a memorandum setting forth the American reservations.

The Americans objected to the principle that persons accused of offenses against the "laws of humanity" should be subjected to criminal prosecution, contending that the laws and principles of humanity constitute a standard too uncertain to be rightly applied in legal proceedings.

The principle that heads of states should be liable to criminal prosecution for breaches of positive law was another point in which they failed to agree with the majority. The American belief in this respect was that the essence of sovereignty lies in the fact that the head of a state is responsible for his illegal acts to the people from whom he derives his authority and not to any foreign sovereignty. This principle was not held to apply in the case of a head of state who is abdicated, for any proceedings against such a person would be against an individual no longer embodying the sovereignty of a state, nor does it apply to political offenses committed by the head of a state which may, if deemed expedient, be made the subject of judicial action and punishment.

Holding these views, the American delegates were, therefore, unable to concur in the recommendation for the establishment of a high tribunal and a prosecuting commission for the trial of criminal cases as advocated by the committee. They proposed, instead, that an international committee of inquiry be created to consider the relative culpability of the authors of the war as well as their culpability as to violations of the laws and customs of war and that enemy persons accused of these latter offenses should be tried by military tribunals or commissions already existing or to be created in different countries. Each of these tribunals will have jurisdiction where the offense was committed in the territory of the nation or against its property or nationals. In the case of offenses by the enemy affecting more than one country, these national courts might unite to form one mixed tribunal.

COUNTER PROPOSALS on League of Nations
Made by Germany
COPENHAGEN, April 24.—(By The Associated Press.)—The German counter proposals to the league of nations are outlined in a long dispatch from Berlin.

The German draft proposes that the league shall embrace all belligerent states and all neutral states which were signatories of The Hague treaty; other states to be admitted by the majority of a majority of the members of the league, but the Holy See to be admitted without this condition.
It is proposed that the league shall function through a congress of states and a world parliament, the former to be the chief administrative body, comprising representatives, with equal rights of all the governments. The world parliament is to be elected from the parliaments of each state, one representative for every million inhabitants, but no parliament to send more than ten representatives.
It is also proposed that an international tribunal and a mediation bureau, be created to decide respectively questions of law and questions of interests. Every difference between states must be submitted to either body.
The draft plans that armaments shall be reduced to domestic requirements, with no armed ships except for the league's naval police force and adequate coastal protection for each country. All straits and canals are to be internationalized. There must be no economic war unless recommended by the league as a measure of compulsion.
The draft also contains a labor agreement resembling the labor charter published in Paris.
Regarding colonial questions, it recognizes the principle of international administration for tropical colonies.

PUBLISHERS MAKE REPLY TO
MR. BURLESON
NEW YORK, April 24.—Replying to a statement tonight to the charge of Postmaster General Burleson that he is the victim of an "organized propaganda," Charles Johnson Post, director of the publishers' advisory board, declared that it was not the publishers of the country who needed defense but the postmaster general himself. He asserted that demoralization of the postal service was a fact which every business man and American home was able to judge.

The publishers' advisory board consists of the Periodical Publishers' Association of America, the Associated Business Papers, Inc., the American Medical Editors' Association, the New York Medical Publishers' Association, the Agricultural Publishers' Association, the Association of Religious Press, the Allied Printing Trades' Council, and the Authors' League of America.

"The amazing official statement by Postmaster General Burleson in his own defense, following his refusal to transmit the dispatch to the New York World because such dispatch reflected upon his incapacity, is a challenge to every serious thinking American—even though he resinded such order the following day, said Mr. Post. "That such a Prussian and vicious one man censorship can be established in the postoffice by Mr. Burleson or anyone else reveals a menace to our nation and American ideals far beyond Mr. Burleson's point that he thinks he has been criticized too severely."

"Whether the postal service is good or bad is not a matter of argument or of Mr. Burleson's personal opinion. The public knows from his own experience, suffered day by day, from the camps in France to the commerce of San Francisco, and as evidenced by the impartial investigations and the resolutions of the most reliable business organizations of the country.
"What Mr. Burleson calls organized propaganda is the expression of sentiment of hundreds and hundreds of responsible business organizations with their many thousands of business members, chambers of commerce, educational institutions, labor organizations, religious organizations and cultural organizations that have formally condemned the various inefficient postal methods and principles which he champions.
"He specifically upholds the vicious and un-American postal zone law with its unfair postage increases against distant American communities and alleges that the publishers of the country, newspapers and periodicals, are in a conspiracy to ruin him. Those whom Postmaster General Burleson is attacking by means of the zone law are not publishers but they are the reading men and women, the reading homes of this nation. For by this postal zone law he demands that any periodical shall cost more in postage, an American reader because of and in proportion to, that reader's accidental remoteness from any point of publication. And when public-spirited and representative organizations, such as the American Federation of Labor, the Merchants' Association of New York, the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the National Grange, the National Education Association and hundreds of others protest against the vicious and un-American law, he says that such expression of opinion 'does not have for its real purpose any desire for improvement in the postal or wire service, but is intended to aid in accomplishing a reduction of the rates of postage on second class mail (newspapers and magazines).'

"On the contrary, the publishers of the country are fighting in order to get every American shall pay the same postage for the same American periodical or newspaper, no matter where he happens to live. Publishers are fighting for equal postage to every American everywhere."
